Hidden Shoal Recordings » Exclusive US CD Re-Releases

Perth, Australia and Los Angeles, USA, November 1st, 2007. The Australian music label Hidden Shoal Recordings has announced the re-release of further selections from its catalogue through its ongoing exclusive partnership with Amoeba Music in Los Angeles.

Hidden Shoal Recordings today announced the re-release of Glassacre's Slow Attack EP and Bury the Sound's Autumn Magnets EP on CD for the first time. This announcement follows the success of these releases through digital distribution, as well as enthusiastic worldwide support from radio, press, and of course fans.

Both EPs are featured releases in Amoeba's Hollywood store and will accompany the recent CD re-releases of Wes Willenbring's Somewhere Someone Else, Sankt Otten's Wir koennen ja Freunde bleiben and The Hero Cycle's Lakes and Ponds EP. Hidden Shoal's series of CD re-releases has already been incredibly successful, with the first shipment of Wes Willenbring and Sankt Otten releases selling out at Aquarius Records, San Francisco four days after their release!

Glassacre – Slow Attack EP

"Glassacre is all shimmer and surge... the power of this music will creep up on you gradually, and before you know it the damn thing is on repeat play... So simple, so effective. So addictive."
 – Luna Kafé

Available now from Amoeba Music, Los Angeles

Bury the Sound – Autumn Magnets EP

"Autumn Magnets is a thickly textured opus... Their approach displays the hallmarks of a relaxed and dynamic group, playing at an easily variable pace and atmosphere, letting the songs find their own course, building and swelling for as long as necessary..." – The Silent Ballet
Available now from Amoeba Music, Los Angeles

Hidden Shoal CD re-releases are available in store at Amoeba, Hollywood and via mail order. Wes Willenbring's Somewhere Someone Else and Sankt Otten's Wir koennen ja Freunde bleiben are also available in store or via mail order from Aquarius Records in San Francisco. All store and mail order information is available in the HSR Store.
